Welcome to INCD 2025!

We are thrilled to invite you to the 7th International Conference on Nutraceuticals and Chronic Diseases (INCD 2025), held alongside the 11th Symposium of the Society for Translational Cancer Research, at the University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram.

Organized by SNCD and STCR, this prestigious event brings together global experts in nutraceuticals, chronic disease research, and integrative medicine. After successful editions across India, INCD 2025 arrives back in Kerala-the Land of Spices, rich in biodiversity and ancient healing traditions.

This year's conference will spotlight the therapeutic power of spices, herbs, and dietary agents in managing cancer, metabolic, neurological, and immune-related diseases. Expect plenary talks, keynote lectures, young scientist awards, and interactive sessions to foster collaboration across disciplines and health systems.

Join us in Kerala for a powerful blend of science, tradition, and innovation-advancing global health through evidence-based nutraceuticals.
